The fee for parking is included in the price of the concert ticket. (Please note that for Ozzfest 2007-there will be a per car parking fee charged day of show.)

When approaching the venue from any direction-follow the signs for General Parking. Follow the parking attendant's direction to the closest available parking space. If not sold out, Premier Parking will also be available at each concert on a first come, first served basis. The cost is $20.00 for cars.
